Kyrenia Municipality Counselling

134 people, 96 women and 38 men, applied to the Kyrenia Municipality Counselling and Support Center in three years.

Kyrenia Municipality Counselling and Support Center, which started its activities on March 9, 2018 in order to provide social and psychological support to all members of the society, especially women and children, and to support their search for solutions in their troubled processes, has completed its third year.

In the statement made by The Kyrenia Municipality, it was stated that a total of 134 people, 38 men and 96 women, have applied to the center so far. Among the clients who applied to the center; a total of 105 people, 15 of them children (3-12 age range), 15 adolescents (12-18 age range), 78 adults received individual counseling service.

24 people have benefited from family and couple therapy service. Until today, 4 victims of violence have applied to the center. It was stated that the most common reasons for referral were generalised anxiety (anxiety) disorder and relationship disorders, and the clients applied to the center with their relationship and communication problems in both family and social areas.

Individual Behavioral Therapy

It was noted that the Individual Behavioral Therapy method, which is considered to be the most effective and short-term method, was used in the center and the minimum number of sessions was between 20-25.

It was stated that the clients were generally composed of people with or without minimum wage and low socio-economic level, and 20 TL was charged per session from the clients.

While 28 applications were made to the center in the last year (from 2020 to today), in March 2020, with the pandemic and the quarantine process required, the counseling service was suspended until June 2020, but after this date it was stated that only 2 children, 11 adolescents and 7 adults, were actively receiving counseling services.

The Counselling and Support Center, which also continues its activities with online publications, seminars in the city and regional schools on the subjects "Peer Bullying, Awareness of Addictions", "How Can I Protect My Child From Abuse?", "Limiting Children and Effective Discipline Methods", "The Place and Effects of Technology in Life." In addition, in cooperation with the Commission on Combating Drugs and Universities, they participated in the Subjective Well-being Program and the Saving Our Children from Virtual Enemy Programs.

Kadioğlu: You are not alone

Kyrenia Municipality Social Affairs Branch Supervisor Misli Kadioğlu, the Counseling and Support Center, which has been in service for three years, supports the struggle of individuals, especially women and children, violence against women, abuse, fight against drugs, social and psychological problems in the family and society. She stated that it was opened with the consciousness of solidarity in order to overcome problems such as adaptation problems.

Kadioğlu underlined that they aimed to move the center to the old Kyrenia Municipality building a few months ago and work more effectively together with the Social Life Center.

She stated that they work not only with psychological support, but also to develop children, young people and individuals, regardless of religion, language, race and gender, with various social and cultural activities for the integration and personal development of everyone.

Kadioğlu said, "In our country, in our city, in our street, in our house, we can cope with love, respect, understanding, sensitivity and if we are together, both our individual and social problems. We all live exceptional days. Many of us can feel more alone in this situation where life is limited and isolated. This process will also come to an end. During this pandemic process, we saw once again that we are all connected to each other like a chain. A better, more livable, fairer, happier world is possible."

Güngördü: We will overcome difficult times with solidarity

Kyrenia Mayor Nidai Güngördü stated that they made a first by putting this center into service three years ago with the understanding of social municipality, and stated that the need for such services increased with the pandemic process experienced today, the increase in social and economic problems and the interruption of education. Noting that disadvantaged individuals and families are more affected by this process, Güngördü said that both individual and social difficult times can be overcome with solidarity. Expressing that the Kyrenia Municipality organizes its priorities in its services in this direction, Güngördü emphasizes the importance of a healthy and quality life, and in this sense, it has been working under the Counseling and Support Center for three years, with its staff and outside counsellors, with voluntary training and studies under the roof of the center until today. He thanked the contributors, institutions and organizations and Universities.

Survey, restoration and rehabilitation works started for Girne Antique Port

With the cooperation of the Kyrenia Municipality and the Ministry of Tourism, the Department of Antiquities and the Planning Construction Department, the survey, restoration and rehabilitation works have started for all the buildings with a silhouette of the harbor in the Kyrenia Antique Harbour.

According to the information obtained from the Kyrenia Municipality, it was reported that the works started in the Kyrenia Ancient Harbor will be carried out according to the results of the archaeological experiment excavations to be made from 5 locations in order to understand the ground physiology, and it was noted that the Urban Aesthetics Department of the Kyrenia Municipality will play a major role in the construction of architectural projects. .

Kyrenia Mayor Güngördü said, "People have sought aesthetic quality in the environment that they have created as well as in the buildings and have sought to organise their environment with this concern," by expressing that they will create a wealth that will be brought to the public in cooperation with the Ministry, Antiquities and Planning and Construction Department. He pointed out that the restoration will be carried out for a long time and emphasised the importance of restoring the Ancient Harbor, which has been reported for various reasons for many years, and stated that they are working with all means in this context.

Güngördü added that they see positive understanding from business owners in the region and that this is very important for them.

Landscaping in the Upper Kyrenia District

Kyrenia Municipality carried out parquet flooring, exterior repairings and painting works in Şair Nedim Street, Meşeli Street and Kamil Paşa Street in the Upper Kyrenia District, which are within the scope of the schedule.

In the statement made by the Kyrenia Municipality, the study area is a protection zone and in this context, 1800 square meters of parquet was made in accordance with the texture, and at the same time, the exterior repairings and painting works of the houses in the region were done by the Kyrenia Municipality Public Works Department, covering the entire area arranged in the said area. It was stated that the landscape work will be started.

In his statement on the subject, Kyrenia Mayor Nidai Güngördü stated that they are in an effort to preserve the historical textures and emphasised the importance of these structures to be transported to future generations. Pointing out that the region in the Upper Kyrenia District for Kyrenia is a building that should be protected in terms of culture, Güngördü noted that they have carried out the necessary work within the bounds of possibility.
